TOWN MEETING ONLY 40 MILES AWAY.

An exceptionally interesting experiment in civic government is being tried in Roland Park, a beautiful suburb to Baltimore. It is substantially government by town meeting, of which it has been said the farther we get away from it the worse off we are and the farther we have departed from the ideal.

In the good old days in New England government by town meeting flourished in all its glory, and the system still prevails there to a considerable extent. Under it, as the name suggests, the citizens meet and discuss matters of common interest. One man is as good as another and the voice of the majority determines all issues. It was this scheme of local government which made the New Englander a man peculiarly well grounded in the science of politics. In Maryland and Virginia, 5 20. 21. where the inhabitants were much more |

ERIN'S PATRON SAINT TO BE HONORED HERE

Special Services in St. Patrick's Church—Banquet of Hibernians.

Erin's sons will do honor to their patron saint tomorrow, St. Patrick's Day. There will be no formal celebration by the Irishmen in the National Capital, but each one of them will commemorate the day in the manner that suits his individual inclination.

Real shamrocks are scarce this year, and there is a big demand for them from individuals and organizations. But, whether there are shamrocks or not, every son of Erin's Isle, and many who belong to it in heart and sympathy only, will be wearing the green. In church circles the day will be significant through the fact that the first pontifical mass by the Right Rev. Bishop D. B. Corrigan will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Church at 11 o'clock. The Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Women's Auxiliary will attend in a body and assist in the mass, which will be in celebration of the feast day of the patron saint of the church.

Bishop Corrigan will be assisted by the Rev. Charles W. Bart as deacon, and the Rev. Clarence E. Wheeler as subdeacon. The Rev. George A. Dough-erty, the Rev. William J. Carroll and Charles Fisher will have charge of the charies Fisher will have charge of the ceremonies.

Special music will be given by the full vested sanctuary choir under direction of Harry Hall, and the mixed choir, under the direction of Prof. Armand Gumprecht. The choirs will have full crgan and orchestra accompaniment. The Rev. William B. Martin, S. T. L., of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, will preach the sermon. He is a graduate of the Catholic University in this city. Following the service a special reception will be held for Bishop Corrigan in the new Carroll Hall.

The Rev. Father Lyons, pastor, will celebrate solemn high mass in St. Aloyslus' Church at 9 o'clock, and special music will be given by the sanctuary choir under the direction of Mr. Winchester.

In the evening the Hibernians will give a banquet at Carroll Institute Hall. P. J. Haltigan will be toast-master. Representative James Graham, of Illinois, and Representative Michael F. Conroy, of New York, will make speeches.
